INTRODUCTION

With one exception, these songs represent the cream of the golden age of songwriting in America, extending from the early 1930s to the Fifties. Some of the songwriters are very well-known, such as Rodgers and Hart (Blue Moon, Spring Is Here) and Harold Arlen (Over The Rainbow). Others were known only within the trade.

Bronislau Kaper (On Green Dolphin Street, Invitation) should be better known . . . jazzmen of an earlier era played his tunes "San Francisco" and "All God's Chillun Got Rhythm," and more than one bathtub baritone has sung his "You're All I Need." John Coltrane recorded his "While My Lady Sleeps." He spent 27 years at the MGM studios writing countless scores; his biggest public success was an Oscar making his "Hi Lili Hi Lo" Song of The Year in 1953.

David Raksin (Laura) is another film studio veteran. Laura is unquestionably his biggest song success, though some jazzmen like his "Too Late Blues." Jimmy McHugh (Don't Blame Me) is a Tin Pan Alley veteran, as are Don Raye and Gene DePaul (Star Eyes), Nacio Herb Brown (You Stepped Out of A Dream), Sammy Fain (Secret Love) and Sam M. Lewis and John Klenner (Just Friends).

At least two of the writers represented on this album came out of jazz backgrounds... Johnny Mandel (The Shadow of Your Smile) and Edgar Sampson (Stompin' at the Savoy), and two more had extensive classical credentials . . . Ferde Grofe (On The Trail) and Michael Edwards, nee Michael Slowitzky, (Once In A While).

Some of these tunes were around for some time before they were discovered. Invitation didn't really come into its own until the Sixties, and I Left My Heart In San Francisco was unknown until Tony Bennett was looking for a way to localize a San Francisco performance. On Green Dolphin Street wasn't really "discovered" until Cannonball Adderley convinced Miles Davis to record it in 1958. Miles, by the way, helped the jazz success of several of these tunes by recording them (No Greater Love, Spring Is Here), but most of these songs don't "belong" to anyone. They're standards that have stood the test of time and, in a number of cases, the test of many different approaches.

Phil Bailey, November, 1984

NOTE: CODAS are only played once . . .
at the end of the last chorus.

LYRICS

ON GREEN DOLPHIN STREET

Words by Ned Washington

Music by Bronislau Kaper

Lover, one lovely day. Love came, planning to stay.
Green Dolphin Street supplied the setting
The setting for nights beyond forgetting, and through these moments apart mem-'ries live in my heart.
When I recall the love I found on, I could kiss the ground On Green Dolphin Street

JUST FRIENDS

Lyric by Sam M. Lewis

Music by John Klenner

Just Friends lovers no more Just Friends but not like before
To think of what we've been and not to kiss again seems like pretending - It isn't the ending-
Two friends drifting apart-
Two friends- but one broken heart-
We loved, we laughed, we cried, and suddenly love died
The story ends- And we're Just Friends.

DON'T BLAME ME

Words by Dorothy Fields

Music by Jimmy McHugh

Don't Blame Me for falling in love with you
I'm under your spell But how can I help it!
Don't Blame Me!
Can't you see when you do the things you do!
If I can't conceal, the thrill that I'm feeling
Don't Blame Me.

I can't help it if that doggoned moon above-
Makes me need, someone like you to love!
Blame your kiss, as sweet as a kiss can be
And blame all your charms that melt in my arms but Don't Blame Me.

THE SHADOW OF YOUR SMILE

Words by Paul Francis Webster

Music by Johnny Mandel

The Shadow of Your Smile when you are gone-
Will color all my dreams and light the dawn.
Look into my eyes my love and see-
All the lovely things you are to me.
Our wistful little star was far too high.
A tear drop kiss'd your lips and so did I.
Now when I remember spring-
All the joy that love can bring,
I will be remembering The Shadow of Your Smile.

MY SECRET LOVE

Lyric by Paul Francis Webster

Music by Sammy Fain

Once I had a Secret Love-
That lived within the heart of me,
All too soon my Secret Love-
Became impatient to be free,
So I told a friendly star,
The way that dreamers often do,
Just how wonderful you are,
And why I'm so in love with you.
Now I shout it from the highest hills,
Even told the golden daffodils;
At last my heart's an open door, And my secret love's no secret anymore.

YOU STEPPED OUT OF A DREAM

Words by Gus Kahn

Music by Nacio Herb Brown

You Stepped Out of A Dream,
You are too wonderful to be what you seem!
Could there be eyes like yours-
Could there be lips like yours,
Could there be smiles like yours, honest and truly?
You stepped out of a cloud,
I want to take you away, a way from the crowd.
And have you all to myself, alone and apart
out of a dream, safe in my heart.

STAR EYES

By Don Raye and Gene dePaul

Star Eyes, That to me is what your eyes are,
Soft as stars in April skies are,
Tell me some day you'll fulfill-their promise of a thrill.
Star Eyes, Flashing eyes in which my hopes rise,
Let me show you where my heart lies,
Let me prove that it adores- that loveliness of yours.
All my life I've felt content to star-gaze at the skies,
Now I only want to melt the star-dust in your eyes.
Star Eyes, When, if ever, will my lips know
If it's me for whom those eyes glow?
Makes no dif-f'rence where you are,
Your eyes still hold my wishing star,
Oh, Star Eyes, how lovely you are.

OVER THE RAINBOW

Words by E.Y. Harburg

Music by Harold Arlen

Some-where Over The Rainbow way up high,
There's a land that I heard of once in a lullaby,
Somewhere Over The Rainbow skies are blue,
And the dreams that you dare to dream really do come true.

Someday I'll wish upon a star and wake up where the clouds are far behind me,
Where troubles melt like lemon drops, away, above the chimney tops that's where you'll find me.

Somewhere Over The Rainbow bluebirds fly,
Birds fly Over The Rainbow why then o why can't I?

WITHOUT A SONG

Words by William Rose & Edward Eliscu

Music by Vincent Youmans

Without a song the day would never end;
Without a song the road would never bend;
When things go wrong a man ain't got a friend,
Without a song.
That field of corn would never see a plow;
That field of corn would be deserted now;
A darky's born, but he's no good no-how,
Without a song.

I got my troubles and woe, But sure as I know the Jordan will roll.
I'll get along as long as a song is strong in my soul.
I'll never know what makes the rain to fall;
I'll never know what makes the grass so tall;
I only know there ain't no love at all,
Without a song.

I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO

Words by Douglas Cross

Music by George Cory

I left my heart in San Francisco.
High on a hill, it calls to me.
To be where little cable cars climb halfway to the stars! The morning fog may chill the air- I don't care!
My love waits there In San Francisco
Above the blue and windy sea.
When I come home to you, San Francisco,
Your golden sun will shine for me.

THERE IS NO GREATER LOVE

Words by Marty Symes

Music by Isham Jones

There is no greater love than what I feel for you
No greater love, No heart so true.
There is no greater thrill than what you bring to me
No sweeter song than what you sing to me.
You're the sweetest thing I've ever known,
And to think that you are mine alone!
There is no greater love in all the world,
It's true, - no greater love than what I feel for you.

ONCE IN A WHILE

Words by Bud Green

Music by Michael Edwards

Once In A While
will you try to give one little thought to me,
Though someone else may be nearer your heart.
Once In A While
will you dream of the moments I shared with you
Moments before we two drifted apart.
In love's smoldering ember, One spark may remain,
If love still can remember, The spark may burn again.

I know that I'll be contented with yesterday's memory,
Knowing that you think of me

STOMPIN' AT THE SAVOY

Words by Andy Razaf

Music by Benny Goodman, Chick Webb, Edgar Sampson

Savoy, the home of sweet romance;
Savoy- it wins you at a glance;
Savoy, gives happy feet a chance- to dance.
Your form- just like a clingin' vine,
Your lips- so warm and sweet like wine,
Your cheek so soft and close to mine- divine.
How my heart is singin'- While the band is swingin'!
Never tired of rompin'- And stompin' with you-at the Savoy, What joy!
a perfect holiday!
Savoy, where we can glide and sway;
Savoy, there let me stomp away- with you.

SPRING IS HERE

Words by Lorenz Hart

Music by Richard Rodgers

Spring Is Here! Why doesn't my heart go dancing?
Spring Is Here! Why isn't the waltz entrancing?
No desire, no ambition leads me,
Maybe it's because nobody needs me.
Spring Is Here! Why doesn't the breeze delight me?
Stars appear, Why doesn't the night invite me?
Maybe it's because nobody loves me,
Spring Is Here I hear.

INVITATION

Lyric by Paul Francis Webster

Music by Bronislau Kaper

You and your smile hold a strange Invitation,
Somehow it seems we've shared our dreams, but where?
Time after time in a room full of strangers,
Out of the blue suddenly you are there.
Wherever I go you're the glow of temptation,
Glancing my way in the gray of the dawn.
And always your eyes smile that strange Invitation,
Then you are gone,
where, oh, where have you gone?
How long must I stay in a world of illusion,
Be where you are, so near yet so far apart,
Hoping you'll say with a warm Invitation
"Where have you been? Darling come in, come into my heart."

LAURA

Words by Johnny Mercer

Music by David Raksin

Laura is the face in the misty light,
Foot-steps that you hear down the hall.
The laugh that floats on a summer night, That you can never quite recall. And you see Laura on the train that is passing thru,
Those eyes- how familiar they seem.
She gave your very first kiss to you- That was Laura- but she's only a dream.

BLUE MOON

Words by Lorenz Hart

Music by Richard Rodgers

Blue Moon- you saw me standing alone
Without a dream in my heart, Without a love of my own.
Blue Moon- you knew just what I was there for You heard me saying a pray'r for, Someone I could really care for.

And then there suddenly appeared before me
The only one my arms will ever hold,
I heard somebody whisper, "Please adore me,"
And when I looked, the moon had turned to gold!

Blue Moon- now I'm no longer alone
Without a dream in my heart, Without a love of my own.

Words by Paul Francis Webster
Music by Bronislaw Kaper

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). It consists of a main melody and a solo section. The main melody is composed of eight staves of music, each with various chordal accompaniment. The solo section is marked 'SOLO' and consists of four staves of music, primarily using a piano accompaniment. The chords used throughout the piece include C-, Eb-, F7, Bb7+4, D7, G7+9, and others. The solo section includes a variety of rhythmic patterns and chord changes.
