By JOHN S. PRATT

The sheet music consists of six staves of musical notation for a solo instrument, likely a snare drum or similar percussive instrument. Each staff includes a rhythmic pattern with note heads and stems, and a corresponding pattern of vertical strokes and arrows indicating the direction of drumstick hits. The notation is organized into measures separated by vertical bar lines. Below each staff, there are performance instructions and dynamics. The first staff begins with a dynamic of mf. The second staff includes a circled letter F and a measure number (23). The third staff includes a circled letter F and the instruction "Reverse sticking". The fourth staff includes measure numbers (14), (18), and (5). The fifth staff includes measure numbers (19) and (16). The sixth staff includes measure numbers (5) and (7). The seventh staff includes measure numbers (8) and (15). The eighth staff includes a dynamic of ff. The ninth staff includes a dynamic of f. The tenth staff includes a dynamic of f. The eleventh staff includes a circled number 9.
