The musical score consists of five staves of music for organ, arranged in three systems. The first system starts with a treble clef staff in C6, followed by a bass clef staff in F6. The second system begins with a treble clef staff in F6, followed by a bass clef staff in Dm. The third system begins with a treble clef staff in G7, followed by a bass clef staff in C. The fourth system begins with a treble clef staff in C, followed by a bass clef staff in Am. The fifth system begins with a treble clef staff in Dm7, followed by a bass clef staff in G7. The lyrics are integrated into the music, with some words appearing above the notes and others below. The music is marked with dynamics like mf and p, and includes measure numbers 3 and 4. The score concludes with a ritardando (rit.) at the end of the fifth system.
